

BOLZANO-VERONA-VENICE - TOUR OF THE VENETO

8-day / 7-night self-guided inn-to-inn cycling holiday

This tour starts in the spectacular, UNESCO listed landscape of the Dolomites and from the mountains around Bolzano, winds its way through typical rural Italian countryside, alongside the Adige River to beautiful Lake Garda with its cosmopolitan little villages dotting shoreline. From the lake's southern end head east over the surrounding hills to re-join the Adige River and cycle on to cities full of culture and history like Verona, Vicenza and Padova, ending in enchanting Venice.

Verona is regarded as an historical city of romance, being the setting for Romeo and Juliet, home to Juliet's House and one of Italy's premier opera houses. Further on, Vicenza is dotted with buildings designed by influential 16th Century architect Andrea Palladio, and Padova's university is one of the oldest in Europe. Venice, La Serenissima, has been a great attraction for tourists for centuries and still today is a 'must see' inclusion on any holiday in Italy. This is a unique opportunity to explore Trentino-Alto Adige and the Veneto by bicycle, seeing splendid villas, market towns and colourful villages.

There are undulating sections along the route with short uphill stretches. Overall, this is an easy to manage itinerary, riding secondary roads or on unpaved or sealed bike paths. Trains (on which you can take your bike) connect the main cities of the tour, so in case of bad weather or if you need a rest day you can take the train.

Suggested itinerary:

Day 1 Bolzano

Aim to arrive mid-afternoon at your Bolzano hotel. Bolzano is a famous commercial and tourist city, with a centre in the colourful Tyrolean style, with historical and cultural links to both the Italian and the German world. Bolzano has an airport and can be reached by train from Rome, Venice via Verona or Munich via Innsbruck.

Day 2 Bolzano – Trento

cycling @ 70km

You ride mostly along the Adige River, through orchards and vineyards, passing the villages of Ora, Egna and Salorno. Salorno, which is nearly the halfway point, marks the linguistic border between German and Italian. Continue on the cycle path to Trento, where the Castello del Buonconsiglio and the Duomo are worth a visit.

Day 3 Trento – Desenzano / Peschiera

cycling @ 50km

Following the Adige, you reach Rovereto and Mori, where you turn westward towards Lake Garda. After a short ascent to Passo di San Giovanni, with beautiful views over the lake and the little town of Torbole, descend to Riva del Garda; here a scenic 4-hour ferry ride takes you to the southern part of the lake.

Day 4 Desenzano / Peschiera – Verona

cycling @ 35km

After a ride over the undulating terrain around Lake Garda, we re-join the valley of the Adige and ride once again alongside the river. Our destination is Verona, one of the most important and beautiful cities of the Veneto region. Worth visiting are the Roman Arena, the Church of San Zeno, Juliet's House and the historical centre.

Day 5 Verona – Vicenza

cycling @ 40 or 75km

The route starts out flattish, among vineyards and past the fortress of Brendola, and then heads through the hilly Monti Berici region just south of Vicenza, with a wonderful view of the city. The old city centre of Vicenza is home to several beautiful private palaces and public buildings designed by Andrea Palladio, the famous 16th Century architect. The day's ride can be shortened by taking the train (at extra cost) for part of the way.

Day 6 Vicenza – Padova spa region

cycling @ 55km

Cycling out of Vicenza on the unpaved Bacchiglione River cycle path, admire the Palladian masterpiece the Villa La Rotonda and Tiepolo's frescos at Villa Valmarana. Pass the hamlet of Montegalda and then take the paved cycle path into the Euganean Hills, the thermal spa region in the province of Padova.

Day 7 Padova spa region – Mestre / Venice

cycling @ 55km

Cycle alongside the Battaglia Canal to Padova, rich in art and history and home to one of the oldest universities in Europe. From Padova, follow the Piovego Canal to Stra where you join the Brenta Canal. You then ride across the Veneto Plains with many grand villas including Villa Pisani, Malcontenta and Villa Widmann. Reach Mestre (on Venice's mainland) and the city of Venice itself, where you will have time to explore. Leave your bikes at your hotel in Mestre as they are not permitted in the city of Venice.

Day 8 Mestre / Venice

Tour ends after breakfast. Extend your stay in Venice at extra cost – ask for details.
