Typical suggested route: Passau – Vienna – Bratislava – Budapest – Vienna – Passau *

Day 1: Passau – Engelhartszell

Plan to arrive in Passau, the “City of Three Rivers” in time to board your ship at 4:00pm. The ship departs at 6:00pm with a welcome drink, your first dinner on board and an evening cruise to Engelhartszell.

Day 2: Engelhartszell – Aschach

cycling @ 43km

The first cycling day starts in Engelhartszell from where we head towards the “Great Loop”, - one of the most photographed and scenic sections of the Danube. We ride on the sealed, traffic-free Danube Cycle Path through many small villages and re-board the ship in Aschach. From Aschach we cruise overnight to Devín.

Day 3: Devín – Bratislava

cycling @ 45km

Cycling along what was once the “Iron Curtain”, we reach the imposing Imperial Palace of Hof with its beautifully terraced gardens and idyllic manor farm. We follow the cycle path with the Little Carpathians as the backdrop onto Bratislava. Here there is time simply relax onboard, to take a stroll or join the optional bus tour and city walk in the evening to discover the many hidden alleyways, squares, and shopping centres of this busy city.

Day 4: Budapest (Free day)

Optional sightseeing tour or cycling @ 24-55km

Open your cabin curtains to a panoramic view of the Danube and many of Budapest’s most famous tourist sites directly beside the river. Nearby, you’ll find the Margaretheninsel, which is excellent to explore by bike. The popular market hall, nicknamed “The Stomach of Budapest”, is full of hand-made Hungarian crafts and specialities and is well worth a visit. For the energetic we suggest a 55km round-trip ride to the island of Szentendre. In the evening there is an optional excursion to enjoy traditional Hungarian music and dance.

Day 5: The Danube Bend – Esztergom

cycling @ 42km

The Danube Bend known as the “Hungarian Wachau” is one of most delightful and attractive parts of the river Ride past Visegrad, with its famous fortress and the ruins of the former palace, then choose from two different routes. Choose to cycle either via the baroque village of Vac, influenced by the architects of the Austrian Empress Maria Theresa or directly to Esztergom with its impressive basilica, Hungary’s largest Catholic Church.

Day 6: Vienna (Free day)

Optional sightseeing tour by bike or bus and evening waltz concert

Today is free to explore Vienna’s attractions with an optional city tour to see Hofburg, St. Stephens Cathedral, “Ringstraße” boulevard, Opera House, Burgtheater and Town Hall. Alternatively relax onboard and take in the sights from the river. In the evening enjoy an optional Waltz and Opera Concert at the Wiener Hofburg.

Day 7: Wachau | Krems – Melk

cycling @ 37km

Great cycling through the small towns, apricot orchards, vineyards, castles, monasteries, and ruins that dot the cycle path. In Spitz, there are many inviting taverns to taste the local wines and beer. Walk through Dunstein’s narrow alleys, where England’s King Richard the Lionheart was imprisoned during medieval times. We end the day in Melk, with its gorgeous Baroque Benedictine Monastery. We celebrate with a farewell gala dinner this evening and afterwards the crew put on a show packed with fun and entertainment.

Day 8: Tour ends in Passau

The ship arrives into Passau at approximately 10am, with disembarkation around 11.00am. To avoid missed connections please do not plan any onward connections until well after 12.00 noon.

 The timetable and itinerary shown above are indicative only and may change without notice; cruise programs will depend on water levels and the navigation of locks, bridges, etc. All distances shown are approximate.*

Non-cycling passengers are welcome on these tours but remember whilst there may be activities planned for the evenings there are no sightseeing excursions included in the tour cost during the day. Guided sightseeing excursions and city tours or evening events can be booked during the week and paid for on-board.

These ships cruise and have engine power at night.
