Suggested itinerary: may be subject to change at the discretion of the guide due to weather or other factors.

Day 1: Arrive at St Bees.

Plan to arrive mid-afternoon. We often stay at a friendly guesthouse in Ennerdale Bridge on this night. A group transfer at set time from St Bees railway station is included in the tour cost (ask for details when booking). Your group leader will give an introductory talk about the walking program this evening.

Day 2: St Bees to Ennerdale Bridge walking @ 14½ miles (24km), ascent 2350ft (720m)

After a ceremonial toe dipping in the Irish Sea, we head towards the Lakes. Our first hill of the journey, Dent (1131 feet / 345m), affords magnificent views over Windermere with the Lake District's mountains in the distance.

Day 3: Ennerdale Bridge to Seatoller walking @ 14½ miles (24km), ascent 2250ft (700m)

Along Ennerdale's shores to an amphitheatre of spectacular mountain scenery including the craggy north face of Pillar and the summit of Great Gable. Following 'Moses's Trod', an old packhorse trail, to the top of Honister Pass, we're greeted by beautiful views of Buttermere. From the old toll road, we descend to Seatoller.

Day 4: Seatoller to Grasmere walking @ 10½ miles (17km), ascent 2650ft (810m)

Leaving Borrowdale via the delightful hamlet of Stonethwaite, our ascent takes us to Greenup Edge, where two possible routes are available (weather dependent). You can choose either the route via the shelter of Easdale Gill, or along Helm Crag to Wordsworth's village of Grasmere.

Day 5: Grasmere to Patterdale walking @ 9 miles (15km), ascent 2700ft (825m)

There are two different routes dependent on the weather and track conditions, either the low-level route via Grisedale or a higher-level walk via St Sunday Crag. The low-level route is a pleasant walk with scenery becoming grander by the minute with St Sunday Crag, Fairfield, the Helvellyn massif, Nethermost and Dollywagon Pike towering above us. The high-level route traverses St Sunday Crag, adding 1000 feet of ascent, for excellent views down to Ullswater and Patterdale. Both routes have a steep descent to Patterdale.

Day 6: Patterdale to Shap walking @ 15½ miles (25km), ascent 3180ft (980m)

Leaving Patterdale we climb to Angle Tarn and the Roman road of High Street before ascending Kidsty Pike, the highest point on the entire walk (2560ft / 780m). Weather permitting there are excellent views from the summit before our descent to Haweswater, following its shores to Burnbanks, where we leave the Lake District National Park behind us, and past the ruins of Shap Abbey, to Shap.

Day 7: Shap to Kirkby Stephen walking @ 20 miles (32km), ascent 1800ft (550m)

A change in landscape: gentler hills and limestone plateaux as we continue east. Passing Sunbiggin Tarn nature reserve, we continue over Ravenstonedale Moor, to one of the earliest Neolithic burial mounds in Cumbria, and on to the market town of Kirkby Stephen.

Day 8: Kirkby Stephen to Keld walking @ 13 miles (21km), ascent 2050ft (625m)

The summit of Nine Standards Rigg affords extensive views over the Pennines, Lakeland and the Howgills. The eponymous Nine Standards cairns at the summit may mark the watershed of the Pennines or perhaps an ancient border. From here our walk descends through peaty moors to cross into Swaledale and down to Keld.

Day 9: Keld to Reeth walking @ 11½ miles (19km), ascent 2150ft (650m)

Lovely Swaledale scenery beckons. Following field paths alongside the banks of the River Swale our walk meets the Pennine Way before traversing the moors past Old Swinner Gill Mines, its 'hushes' and ravines, en-route to the attractive village of Reeth, where houses cluster round the expansive village green.

Day 10: Reeth to Richmond walking @ 11 miles (18km), ascent 1250ft (380m)

Continuing along the River Swale we reach 12th Century Marrick Priory. Climbing now, to Marske, walking below Whitcliffe Scar, we reach historic Richmond. Dominated by its dramatic Norman castle, Richmond is a town of narrow cobbled streets and picturesque corners.

Day 11: Richmond to Danby Wiske walking @ 15½ miles (25km), ascent 600ft (200m)

Crossing from Swaledale to the Cleveland Hills is leisurely walking, entirely over low ground. The fertile agricultural land of the Vale of Mowbray is only just above sea level. The walk finishes today at Danby Wiske, at 110 feet it is the lowest point on the entire Coast to Coast walk. The village church at Danby Wiske is heritage listed and parts of the building date back to Norman times.

Day 12: Danby Wiske to Carlton Bank walking @ 17 miles (28km), ascent 2150ft (650m)

Following field paths, farm roads and quiet country lanes over undulating terrain, our walk begins its crossing of the North York Moors, passing Mount Grace Priory for a splendid high-level traverse along the Cleveland Hills. We descend to the valley of Scugdale, then climb again towards the open expanse of Carlton Moor.

Day 13: Carlton Bank to Blakey Ridge*walking @ 12 miles (20km), ascent 1950ft (600m)

A dramatic, rugged and undulating walk, sometimes steep, to Clay Bank Top, Carr Ridge and Round Hill, the highest point of the Cleveland Hills at 1489 feet (454m). After Urra Moor our trail coincides with the Lyke Wake Walk, before following the old ironstone railway to the 16th Century Lion Inn, at Blakey Ridge.

Day 14: Blakey Ridge to Grosmont*walking @ 13 miles (22km), ascent 600ft (185m)

Crossing the head of Rosedale, we see scars from the 19th Century ironstone workings. Over Danby Moor to Great Fryup Head, we pass numerous Bronze Age barrows and burial mounds. Descending to Glaisdale, the wooded valley leads to Grosmont, the destination for the steam trains of the North Yorkshire Moors Railway.

Day 15: Grosmont to Robin Hood's Bay*walking @ 16 miles (26km), ascent 1950ft (600m)

We ascend to Sleights Moor and Flat Howe, from where we have views of the North Sea, Whitby and its Abbey. Dropping back down into the valley we pass through the pretty hamlets of Little Beck and Hawkser, before the invigorating coastal scenery of the Cleveland Way, and our final footsteps to Robin Hood's Bay.
