Suggested Itinerary:

Day 1 Saturday: Arrive in Innsbruck

Arrive in Innsbruck mid to late afternoon and make your way to your hotel for a welcome briefing and bike fitting. Afterwards we recommend a visit to the old town to see the city tower with its Golden Roof.

Day 2 Sunday: Innsbruck to Bressanone

cycling @ 55km

After breakfast, transfer (by train or minibus – approximately 40 mins) up to the Brenner pass, the border between Austria and Italy. From the small village of Brenner, you cycle on a newly extended bike path, mostly along the river Eisack, first to the little town of Gossensass, through Sterzing, and then to the once mighty city of the Fugger. Continue to Thumberg, to the beautiful Reifenstein Castle, and via Stilfes and Mittenwald to Franzensfeste with its famous fortress. The bike path continues to the beautiful and quiet Lake Varna, to Varna and finally to Bressanone, where you spend the night.

Day 3 Monday: Bressanone – Bolzano

cycling @ 45km

Start by cycling through the Dürer town Chiusa along the river Eisack to Waidbruck, where you have a stunning view of Castle Trostburg. Here, the valley gets narrower and leads into the Bolzano basin, surrounded by vineyards. Bolzano is a fascinating city where two cultures, Austrian and Italian, meet. Perhaps visit the South Tyrol Archaeological Museum with Ötzi the Iceman.

Day 4 Tuesday: Bolzano – Ora

cycling @ 30km

Cycle through numerous orchards and the vineyards that surround the South Tyrolean Wine Route, past many castles and ruins, to the wine village Appiano and further to Lake Caldaro (Kalterersee). Stay overnight in the cosy wine town Ora. Perhaps sample some of the aromatic dry whites of the South Tyrol wine region.

Day 5 Wednesday: Ora – Trento

cycling @ 50km

The day's ride is mostly on the beautiful bike path along the river Adige. You pass through beautiful orchards to Salorno, where the German speaking South Tyrol ends. Pathways alongside dams and on levees lead to Trento with its lovely old town. Here perhaps visit the Trento Cathedral that sits on Piazza Duomo featuring a rose window and a baroque style chapel.

Day 6 Thursday: Trento – Ala / Rivalta

cycling @ 60km

As you continue riding, the Adige valley gets narrower, the mountain ranges come closer together. Impressive castles tower above which for many centuries guarded this important trade route. We recommend a visit to Rovereto and the city of Mozart, Ala. Then you continue on the bike path to Rivalta.

Day 7 Friday: Ala / Rivalta to Verona

cycling @ 45km

The final day of riding takes you along the well-developed bike trail along the Adige River into Verona, with its bustling city centre and pretty piazzas. Perhaps visit the well-preserved 1st century amphitheatre, stroll the historic streets of the old town and enjoy regional food and wine from the Veneto hinterland.
