

ENGLAND – CONISTONWATER IN THE LAKE DISTRICT

8-day / 7-night one-hotel GUIDED walking tour based in one of England's most beautiful National Parks

Conistonwater is an ideal location to explore the Lake District National Park where, for generations, the outstanding scenery of the Lake District has attracted walkers to discover this magical landscape of rare natural beauty. Ramble along stunning lakeside paths, climb famous hills and fells, unwind in the tranquil wooded valleys, see high waterfalls and open moorlands. Perhaps you too will be inspired by mountain tarns and lakes to write poetry and paint landscapes, as so many poets, artists and writers have been inspired before you.

Whatever your interests and walking experience, the Southern Lake District offers something for everyone: Ascend the mountain summits of the Old Man of Coniston, Bowfell and the Langdale Pikes; meander past lakes and tarns and visit the Lakeland stone villages of Grasmere and Hawkshead; discover the area's literary connections with William Wordsworth, Arthur Ransome, John Ruskin and Beatrix Potter; walk past the abandoned copper mines and slate quarries, evidence of Lakeland's industrial past, which are now beginning to blend in with the landscape. Ride on the scenic narrow-gauge Ravenglass & Eskdale railway, or cruise down Coniston Water on a steam yacht.

Each walking day you are offered a choice of up to three guided walks of varying length and ascent. Each night your walk leaders will brief you on the following day's walks – the routes are at the complete discretion of the leaders. You choose the walk that suits your fitness level and interests. At this centre, we offer two different weekly itineraries – ideal for a 14-night holiday or a second visit.

Suggested itinerary (routes are determined each day by walk leaders – subject to change):

Day 1: Arrival day

Arrival day – plan to arrive at Monk Coniston mid-afternoon. Check with us for local transport or taxi transfer options from / to nearby Windermere.

Day 2: Tarn Hows and Wetherlam

The easier route follows in the footsteps of Beatrix Potter on a pleasant ramble through the woods to picturesque Tarn Hows then to Yew Tree Farm, which was donated to the National Trust by the author and used as a location for the film Miss Potter. Other routes traverse the lower eastern slopes of Wetherlam then walk via Tilberthwaite Gill, a water-filled ravine, and Holme Fell, or ascend to the summit of Wetherlam via the gill.

Day 3: Ambleside Fells

The three walks take very different paths but all feature spectacular viewpoints. The easier walk has lake views from the lower slopes of Loughrigg Fell and allows plenty of time to explore the popular town of Ambleside. The medium walk ascends Wansfell Pike for views over Windermere and the Fairfield ridge before looping back via Troutbeck and Skelghyll Woods to Ambleside. On the harder walk there's a steep scramble to the top of Red Screes, an ascent up Dove Crag and an up-and-down over High Pike and Low Pike, before finishing in Ambleside.

Day 4: Free day

Free day, without organised walks. Explore the area independently or relax at the country house. Perhaps take a steam-powered yacht on Coniston Water or ride the Ravenglass and Eskdale Railway.

Day 5: Hawkshead and Coniston Fells

The easier route takes us across the countryside that inspired Beatrix Potter, to the pretty market village of Hawkshead, with its narrow laneways and whitewashed stone buildings. There are a number of tearooms and pubs for a refreshment after our walk. Or, walk the lower slopes of Coniston Old Man before dropping down to the shoreline of Conistonwater. Those who choose the harder option can summit Coniston Old Man and Dow Crag.

Day 6: The Langdale Valley

Follow the Langdale Valley, with its two spectacular waterfalls, Colwith Force and Skelwith Force, or walk the ridgeline above the valley, where you need to 'thread the needle' (squeeze through a narrow fissure) to reach the summit of Lingmoor. Or, for a challenging but rewarding day, follow the classic Crinkle Crags ridge walk, ascending two fine fells and gaining over 1000 metres of elevation.

Day 7: Grasmere and Helm Crag

The charming village of Grasmere was home to poet William Wordsworth and those who choose the easier route will have time to explore the village, visit Wordsworth's grave in the churchyard, and sample the famous Grasmere gingerbread, along with a walk to the impressive glacial lake Easedale Tarn. Or take a shorter or longer route to the summit of Helm Crag for great views over Grasmere.

Day 8: Departure day

Tour ends after breakfast.
