

SPAIN – CAMINO DE ESTRELLAS – SANTIAGO TO CAPE FINISTERRE

6-day / 5-night SELF-GUIDED inn-to-inn pilgrimage walk – from the city to the sea

The Camino de Santiago – the pilgrim's route to the shrine of St James the Apostle in the city of Santiago de Compostela in northern Spain – has attracted walkers from all over Europe since the 12th Century. Today, it is possible to experience the same pace of travel as medieval travellers along several walking routes: the original Camino Primitivo from Oviedo, the Camino Frances from Le Puy in France or Geneva in Switzerland, the Camino del Norte from San Sebastián, the Camino Portugués from Porto or Tui or the Via de la Plata, the Silver Route from Madrid to Santiago.

Of course having walked for days, weeks or months in their quest for holy dispensations and forgiveness, many pilgrims simply turned around and walked home absolved of their sins. Others took boats (as we now take planes, buses or trains) or remained in Santiago enthused by its cosmopolitan and lively atmosphere and the joy of the many pilgrims who arrive each day, each with their story to tell, from many corners of the known world.

Other pilgrims would continue their quest from Santiago to the sea and follow the route westwards 90 or so kilometres towards the 'coast of death' Costa da Morte and the 'ends of the earth' (Finis Terrae) at Cape Finisterre. This, the Camino Estrellas, is a beautiful and fulfilling hilly road less travelled. It passes remote villages and ends at the dramatic sheer steep cliffs of Spain's westernmost point.

Share in the sheer scale, the mystery and the history of this great medieval pilgrimage phenomenon. Take a journey where you can imagine the hardships, the pleasures and interests of those early pilgrims. Follow an infinitely varied succession of paths and trails that link towns and villages, churches and ancient monuments and the spectacularly rugged coastline and lighthouse at Cape Finisterre.

Day 2: Santiago – Negreira

walking @ 22km (4.5 hours)

Your starting point for the journey to Fisterra is Plaza del Obradoiro, Santiago's main plaza, near to the Cathedral. You pass through many small villages, through fertile agricultural land and cross over old Roman bridges en route to Negreira. Here you may like to visit the remnants of the medieval Pazo do Coton (the country house of the Coton family) and the nearby chapel dedicated to St Maurus. Dinner is included tonight.

Day 3: Negreira – Maroñas

walking @ 22km (4.5 hours)

Cross the Barcala River as you leave Negreira, then ascend Monte Aro for wide-reaching views of the valley and the Ferenza dam. The route then enters the unspoiled Xallas valley. Arrive in Maroñas this afternoon for a short transfer to your accommodation in Chacín. Dinner is included tonight.

Day 4: Maroñas – Cee

walking @ 30km (7 hours)

After breakfast you are transferred back to the route. Walk alongside rivers and past the hermitage of Our Lady of the Snows (Nosa Senora das Neves in Galician). Reach the carved stone cross at Alto do Cruxeiro da Armada, and afterwards as you descend through pine groves, get your first glimpse of the sea and the Costa da Morte. Arrive in the picturesque fishing village of Cee where you stay tonight. Dinner is included.

Day 5: Cee – Fisterra

walking @ 21km (5 hours)

A lovely coastal walk today, along cliffs and past coves, catching glimpses of your destination, perhaps with time for a refreshing swim at one of the isolated beaches. Aim to arrive into Finisterre (Fisterra in Galician) early this afternoon to visit the spectacular lighthouse on Monte Facho, the 600-metre promontory at the tip of Cape Finisterre. Dinner is at your own arrangements tonight. Perhaps choose one of the harbourside cafés serving freshly caught and grilled sardines or octopus cooked Galician style (polbo á galega).

Day 6: Fisterra

Tour arrangements end after breakfast. There is a regular bus service from Fisterra to Santiago, departing up to 5 times daily on weekdays, less frequently on weekends, taking 2 to 3 hours. Alternatively we can arrange a transfer to Santiago at extra cost.
