

SPAIN – THE WAY OF ST JAMES or CAMINO DE SANTIAGO

8-days / 7-nights inn-to-inn GUIDED pilgrimage route walk Sarria to Santiago EARLY BOOKING VITAL

The Camino de Santiago or Way of Saint James – the route of pilgrims to the final resting-place of the apostle St James – continues to be one of the most popular and most celebrated walking routes in Europe. Jerusalem and Rome were for centuries the two main centres for European pilgrims, but today, this UNESCO listed heritage route to Santiago de Compostela surpasses them all. And walking the last section of the 'French Route' - a challenging but exhilarating journey - from Sarria to Santiago qualifies you as a true pilgrim.

As you walk – without worrying about baggage or accommodation – you will meet walkers from around the world and have the chance to discover the extraordinary spirituality and hospitality that this trail evokes.

Suggested itinerary:

Day 1: Arrival day

There is a coach transfer to Sarria from La Coruña Airport from a designated arrival flight at a set time and this standard transfer is included in the tour cost. If you arrive from a different location such as Madrid or Leon you should arrange a taxi or bus to Sarria to reach the hotel by mid-afternoon. After dinner your leader will give an introductory briefing on the walk.

Day 2: Sarria to Portomarín

walking distance @ 23km

Today we walk from the monastery of La Magdalena to the Galician vineyards, along the banks of the Mino River to Portomarín. Our route is lined by shady chestnut and oak groves, fields enclosed by traditional Celtic 'chantos', and examples of Galician Romanesque architecture in a landscape little changed for centuries.

Day 3: Portomarín to Palas de Rei

walking distance @ 26km

We enjoy panoramic views as we walk through undulating countryside. Our walk climbs gently to Hospital de la Cruz, and then winds through the pine groves and meadows to Palas de Rei.

Day 4: Palas de Rei to Arzúa

walking distance @ 30km

Romanesque churches, and medieval bridges punctuate our route as we walk from Palas de Rei to Arzúa. Our route is dotted with castles, fortresses, and a myriad of historical monuments.

Day 5: Arzúa to Rúa-O Pina

walking distance @ 18km

Tiny hamlets dotted with shingle houses, hidden amidst wooded glades and eucalyptus trees, line the trail to Rúa. Visit the ancient church of San Verisimo and the 18th Century chapel in Santa Irene.

Day 6: Rúa to Santiago de Compostela

walking distance @ 22km

Our first glimpse of the city, our final destination, is from the summit of Monte del Gozo, from where we descend and enter the city of Santiago de Compostela via the Porta do Camino. We follow the road of the pilgrims to the impressive city square with its Parador (the former hospice), town hall and of course the Cathedral, reputed to be the final resting place of the Apostle St James.

Day 7: Santiago de Compostela

free day

Today is free to relax, to celebrate your journey and explore this magnificent city with its many shops and gardens. There is a lively market full of local produce and seafood, many restaurants and ancient buildings.

Day 8: Depart from Santiago de Compostela

Tour ends after breakfast, after which you are free to make your own onward travel arrangements. Alternatively, there is one daily departure, by standard coach transfer to La Coruña airport from Santiago – ask for details.
