

AUSTRIA – ZILLERTAL ALPS

8-day / 7-night centre-based GUIDED walking based at Mayrhofen – a choice of graded walks each day

Our ever-popular resort of Mayrhofen offers superb Alpine walking in the stunning mountains of Austria's Zillertal Alps. One of the joys of the wonderful Zillertal Alps is that there are superb routes for walkers of all abilities – situated at the junction of four valleys the resort offers walks from gentle rambles through meadows to lofty mountain ascents. The surrounding mountains offer picture-postcard scenery with snow-covered peaks, deep blue lakes, glaciers and acres of alpine flowers. Excellent public transport and an extensive network of cable cars and chairlifts enable everyone to enjoy the high mountain scenery.

We stay at the 4-star Hotel Waldheim, an excellent family-run hotel which wins accolades from guests year after year for its friendly and personal service, beautifully maintained guest rooms and wonderful meals.

Our centre-based walking holidays offer a choice of two guided walks each day – usually an easier walk or a more challenging option. There is usually a free day midweek to relax or go sightseeing – perhaps visit the historic city of Innsbruck, take the narrow gauge railway to the Achensee lake, or take a local bus to the Krimml Waterfalls, the highest in Europe at 380 metres.

Footpath and walking information:

Easier Walks: 8 to 13km on good paths through valleys and high meadows with up to 360m of ascent in a day.

Harder Walks: 10 to 16km with some steeper gradients and rougher terrain to summits and cols with up to 950m of ascent in a day.

Suggested itinerary:

Day 1: Arrive in time for dinner (ask about transfers from Munich airport at extra cost). Meet your fellow walkers over your evening meal. After dinner your walks leaders will brief you on the week ahead.

Day 2: Take a cable car onto the Penken plateau then walk through high meadows carpeted with flowers offering magnificent views over the valley and across the surrounding mountains.

Day 3: Explore the picturesque village of Brandberg, then ascend to a mountain hut with superb views.

Day 4: Travel to the head of the Tux Valley to explore high ridges and remote Alpine valleys. With luck we will spot marmots and edelweiss.

Day 5: Free day, no walks are planned. You may like to visit Innsbruck, to take the narrow-gauge railway to Achensee Lake or hire a mountain bike to explore the local trails. Or just spend a quiet day relaxing at the hotel.

Day 6: A circuit walk taking in the dramatic Finkenberg Gorge and a lovely path through forest.

Day 7: Journey to the Schlegeis Dam, where the reservoir is surrounded by dramatic glaciers and snow-capped peaks. From here we may ascend to a historic mountain hut, traverse a high ridge and zigzag back to the lake, or follow the lakeside path, descend below the dam to the valley floor and walk a quiet path along the river.

Day 8: Tour ends after breakfast. Ask about transfer to Munich airport at extra cost.

The itinerary is subject to change. The final selection of walks will be made by your walking leaders. Some walks may not be available early or late season due to snow conditions or closure of cable cars.

Looking for something more challenging in the Austrian Alps: On selected dates at Mayrhofen we offer High Routes, which are challenging walks using cable cars and rough steep paths that may be exposed or have fixed ropes to tackle some of the best summits including Torhelm, Raskogel, Hoher Riffler, the towering Ahorn Spitz or other 3000m peaks. These High Route trips require a high level of stamina & fitness: walks of 13 to 21km with up to 1380m of ascent – ask for details:
