

FRANCE – CATALONIA

8-days / 7-nights guided walking and sightseeing tour in French Catalonia at Argelès-sur-Mer

Catalonia is more typically associated with Spain but the region extends through to the Languedoc across the French and Spanish border. Northern Catalonia offers superb walking opportunities along the dramatic coastline dotted with secluded coves and pretty beaches, or through the wild landscapes further inland. Added to the spectacular walking there is the fascinating history of this border region, Catalan heritage and traditions, and exceptional cuisine – northern Catalonia is a true hidden gem.

Catalonia offers a wide variety of walks, from coastal walking along the famous Sentier du Littoral, to shaded routes between pretty villages, and artists' hideaways. The routes inland are far less touristed and are filled with historical sites including WWII forts. We walk in the foothills of the Pyrenees and in the hills near the Spanish coastal resort town of Llanca, and visit Collioure, a fishing village whose beautiful natural setting and intense light attracted many artists including Henri Matisse.

Suggested itinerary: The itinerary below should give you a good feel for the walks at the resort but is subject to change. The final selection of walks will be made by your walking leaders, who will brief you each evening on the next day's proposed routes.

Day 1: Arrival day. Plan to arrive at the hotel in Argelès-sur-Mer by mid-afternoon. Transfers at set times from Barcelona Airport are available at extra cost, ask us for details.

Day 2: Le Sentier du Littoral – Starting from the hotel we walk part of this pathway, which stretches along the coastline from the nature reserve of Mas Larrieu, past rocky coves and secluded beaches, as far as the charming fishing village of Collioure and the larger commercial harbour at Port-Vendres.

Day 3: The Massif des Albères – From the medieval village Laroque des Albères there are many paths into the wooded slopes of the massif des Albères, through cork and chestnut forest to the Casot del Guarda refuge hut.

Day 4: Banyuls-sur-Mer – Walk from Port Vendres through vineyards or via the remote headland at Cap Bear to the open-air museum at the former explosive manufactory in Pauilles. We continue along the undulating Sentier du Littoral to the pleasant beach resort of Banyuls-sur-Mer.

Day 5: Free day. No walks are planned for today. Relax at the hotel, walk independently, or explore the local area. The medieval town of Perpignan, once the capital of the far-reaching Kingdom of Mallorca, is worth a visit, or take a train into Spanish Catalonia to the Dali Museum at Figueres.

Day 6: Spanish Catalonia – We cross the border to the Spanish resort town Llanca and walk in the hills around the town for magnificent views of the coast.

Day 7: Foothills of the Pyrenees – We explore the hinterland behind Argelès, walking paths in the forested slopes of the Pyrenees as they descend to the Mediterranean. We may walk to the Tour de la Massane, a 13th Century defensive tower, for views of the whole Vermillion Coast, then continue on to Valmy, with its 19th century 'chateau' which is one of the earliest buildings constructed with reinforced concrete.

Day 8: Departure day. Tour ends after breakfast. Ask about departure transfer to Barcelona Airport (extra cost).
